EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record that is not seen to change the scope of the claims appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312.

To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Gautham Bodepudi on 3/21/2007.

2. The application has been amended as follows:

-- Amend claim 2, line 2 by deleting the word "strip" located before the word "conductive" and replace it with --element--.

Reasons for Allowance

3. The allowed claims are 1-3

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The prior art does not show the frame ground having conductivity on upper and lower parts and the in/ejector is coupled to the upper and lower parts of the stiffener and is grounded to the frame ground and grounded to the guide supporter via the elastic conductive element in combination with all the other elements of the claim and the examiner knows of no permissible motivation to combine the prior art such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Interview Summary

During the phone interview 3/21/2007 it was agreed that amend claim 2 line 2 from "the elastic strip" to "the elastic element" for proper antecedence formalities.

Conclusion

The prior listed on PTO form 892 that is made of record is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure because it shows the state of the art with respect to applicant's claimed invention.
